

The Mighty Eagle

Abhinav Gabbeta , Age: 11 years

Let freedom Ring, Let freedom ring,
The Mighty Eagle will always sing.
Making sure that freedom will never die
The Eagle spreads its wings around the world soaring into the sky.
It now preaches on a cliff, the cliff of battle,
Poor leadership it shall dismantle.
Its eyes of justice are crystal clear, for the liberty
For people it shall strike without fear
People may think that this is queer,
But they don't realize that you guys are out there to cushion the "Eagle's Tear"
You're out there fighting for one; fighting for all,
No matter what happens you stand tall
You're out there risking your lives,
Your determination is sharper than knives
Battling for the freedom of the Middle East under fire,
Your leadership and bravery, we will always admire
The Eagle's eyes shine with light for it knows it will never fail,
Because in the end, justice will prevail!
In the end, justice will prevail!

Liberty

Avinash Gabbeta, Age: 12 years

"Give me liberty or give me death,"
Is what Patrick Henry said with every bit of his breath.
As long as liberty shall fly,
Those famous and powerful words will never die!
Liberty will always be our dream,
For liberty we shall scream!
Liberty is great,
Liberty marks our fate!
Without liberty, we would all be so deeply in the blue,
As if we had a killer flu!
Liberty gives us the opportunity to do great deeds,
Liberty is one of our basic needs!
Liberty shines from the Liberty Bell to The Statue of Liberty,
Liberty shall shine from sea to shining sea!
Liberty for one, liberty for all,
Without liberty, we would never have a ball!
Liberty, liberty, what a wonderful thing,
Magical peace is what it can bring!
Oh, liberty, liberty, what a wonderful thing,
Magical peace is what it will definitely bring!!
